Early Childhood Professionals Needed!

Childcaring Offers FREE Virtual Information Sessions on Child Care Start Up

Do you enjoy helping young children? Would you like to be your own boss? Child care may be the business for you! Our community needs care for children of all ages, but especially for infants and toddlers. If you, or someone you know, is interested in providing quality child care please contact Childcaring, your local Child Care Resource and Referral.

Childcaring is offering FREE virtual information sessions. Join us Tuesday, March 9 (1-2pm). To register for this session before Tues., March 2, call Childcaring at 1-800-628-8534 or scan the QR Code.

There is also an additional virtual session option: Thursday, May 13 (1-2pm); register by Thursday, May 6.

Start-Up Grants are Available! Contact Childcaring to learn more about start-up grant eligibility. If you became regulated within the past six months you may still be eligible to apply.

Virtual sessions will be through Zoom, powered by RingCentral. To access, participants will need to download an app to a device such as a computer, tablet, or smart phone. Participation by phone is also available, however Zoom is encouraged as information will be shared visually. Registered participants will receive a link or phone number to access the session prior to the start date.

For more information contact Childcaring at 1.800.628.8534 or email: info@childcaring.org.
