Early Childhood Professionals Help Shape the Future

Are you or someone you know interested in providing child care?

Children are the future and providing their child care is a very important career path. If you are dedicated to helping young children and enjoy making a difference in the life of a child, you may want to consider a career in child care. Starting a child care business is one of the most important and rewarding careers you can have.

Do you want to learn more about starting a child care business? Or do you know someone who would be a good fit as a child care provider? Childcaring can help you find answers to your questions about providing child care. Join the FREE Virtual Start-Up Information Session October 20 (6:00-8:00pm) Call Childcaring to register at: 1-800-628-8534 or scan this QR code to register by: Monday, October 18.

Start-Up Grants are Available! Eligible providers have used the funding to purchase equipment and materials, and classes required to obtain regulation (i.e.: fencing, safety gates, developmentally appropriate materials for a variety of age groups, smoke detectors, fire extinguishers, etc.). Contact Childcaring to learn more about start-up grant eligibility. If you became regulated within the past three months you may still be eligible to apply.

Kari, a regulated child care provider, says this about providing child care, “There is always so much to learn and not one child is the same. I get to see children develop, learn and flourish under our care. We get to see the children develop from babies into young people. It is a privilege that the families entrust us with their children and we are so fortunate to get to play a role in their children’s lives during those vital first five years.”

Childcaring is offering a virtual Abusive Head Trauma Prevention Training for Child Care Providers on October 21 (10:30am – 12:30pm).

The training is FREE to Oct. 20 information session participants or $15. This training addresses the latest information on: Abusive Head Trauma; Shaken Baby Syndrome, The Period of Purple Crying; Strategies and challenges of soothing; Coping with frustration; Having a plan and educating others. Call Childcaring to register 1-800-628-8534.

These sessions will be presented virtually by RingCentral. Providing child care is a valuable service to families and the community. If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about providing child care, contact Childcaring today!
